

SUFFOLK #DAY

As Lord Lieutenant, with the Mayors of Suffolk's county towns and all our ceremonial leaders, Suffolk Day is proclaimed as a commemoration of all the good people, places and principles of our wholesome county.

From [Friday 19th June] [today] and over the Father's Day weekend, gather your household together to eat and drink; remember what has happened and remember all the good that our county gives.

We have historic towns and villages, an incredible coastline and so much unique and largely unspoilt countryside. We have the best local food, we are rich in art and culture; we have innovative businesses to take us forward and we have heritage and sports. We salute our charities and heroic key workers who continuing at the front line.

We are all proud of our communities and our county. Suffolk Day is the moment we come together to thank those who make it a wonderful place to live, work and learn.

Over this weekend, people of all ages should unite in celebrating the past, the present and the future. Raise a toast to Suffolk; as this Proclamation is shared by our many community groups and stakeholders. So, let us shout loudly about our love for this County and it's people

Ladies and gentlemen, three cheers for Suffolk ... Hip Hip Hurrah,
